ARTICLE III
MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meetings. There shall be at least one meeting of the members each year. The Annual Meeting of the members shall be held on the last Sunday in May at the hour of 12 o'clock P.M. at such place as the Board reasonably determines, or such other date, place and/or time as the Board of Directors shall determine, provided, however, that unless notice has been given to all members of such alternative date at least ten (10) days prior to the last Sunday in May in each year, the Annual Meeting date for such year shall be the last Sunday in May.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called, for any specific purpose, at any time by the President or by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of 50 members of the Association who are entitled to vote. Only items listed in the purpose of the meeting shall be conducted at a special meeting.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS

Section 1. Membership. Every owner of a Lot which is subject to assessment shall be a member of the Association. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any Lot which is subject to assessment.

Section 2. Rights Subject to Obligations. The rights of membership are subject to the payment of annual and special assessments levied by the Association, the obligation of which assessments are imposed against each Owner of the Lots and becomes a lien against the Lots on which such assessments are made, as provided by the Declaration.

Section 3. Suspension of Rights. The rights of membership of any person(s) may be suspended by action of the Board of Directors during any period when the assessments against their Lot(s) remain unpaid, but upon payment of such assessments and penalties, their rights and privileges shall be automatically restored. If the Board of Directors or its Delegate have adopted and published rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Area, and the personal conduct of any person thereon violates any such rule or regulation, they may, in their discretion, suspend the rights of any person violating such rules and regulations for a period determined by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to deny any Owner(s) access to and from their lot.

ARTICLE V VOTING RIGHTS

Section 1. Voting Class. The Association shall have one class of voting membership which is hereby designated Class A. Class A members shall be entitled to one vote for each Lot owned. When more than one person holds an interest in any Lot, such Lot shall be exercised as they among themselves determine, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast with respect to any Lot.

Section 2. Suspension of Members Rights. If a member is in default in the payment of any annual or special assessment levied by the Association, the voting rights of such member shall be suspended by the Board of Directors of the Association until such assessment, and interest thereon, if any, has been paid. If a member owns more than one Lot and is in default on one Lot they shall be considered in default on all Lots owned by them.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of the members stating the date, time, place, the agenda and procedure for the appointment of proxies shall be given by, or at the direction of, the President, the Secretary or person authorized to call the meeting, by mailing a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, at least 10 days before such meeting to each member entitled to vote thereat, addressed to the member's address last appearing on the books of the Association, or supplied by such member to the Association for the purpose of notice. In the case of a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting shall also be stated.

Section 4. Quorum. At each such meeting called, the presence at the meeting of members entitled to cast and proxies and absentee members, entitled to cast, twenty-five percent (25%) of all the votes of the Association shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, or these By-Laws. If however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the members entitled to vote thereat shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum as aforesaid shall be present or be represented.

Section 5. Proxies At all meeting of members, each member may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the Secretary or delivered to the person acting as their proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall automatically cease upon conveyance by the member of their lot.

Section 6. Absentee Ballot and Mail Votes. Any member who is entitled to vote at, but who is absent from, any meeting of the members may vote by mail on the ballot herein prescribed upon any election, motion, resolution or amendment which the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, submit to the members for a vote by them. The ballot to be used to cast votes by mail may be in the form prescribed by the Board of Directors and shall set forth the exact text of the proposed election, motion, resolution or amendment to be voted upon at such meeting and space in which such members may indicate an affirmative or negative vote thereon. Such member shall express the vote by marking an "X" in the appropriate space upon such ballot. Such ballot shall be signed by the member and when received by the Association, before the meeting having been called to order, shall be accepted and counted as the vote of such absent member at such meeting. Every absentee ballot shall be revocable and shall automatically cease if the lot owner is not in good standing with the Association or upon the conveyance of the lot.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: SELECTION: TERM OF OFFICE

Section 1. Number. The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors of not less than six (6) and not more than eleven (11) directors, who shall be adult members in good standing with the Association. The exact number of directors shall be determined by a vote of members at the Annual Meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

Section 2. Term of Office. The term of office for each Director shall be three (3) years, all of which terms shall, to the fullest extent possible, be staggered and to that end, the members shall have the authority to fix, at the time of election of a director, the term of such director for a period less than three (3) years in order to achieve staggered terms and assure the number of directors' terms expiring in any subsequent year shall not be more than three (3) members of the Board of Directors' total membership.

Section 3. Limitation of Terms. The term of office of each Director shall be three years. Each Director may hold office until the adjournment of the third Annual Meeting of the membership and until their respective successors shall have been elected and qualified or until their death, resignation or removal as provided herein. None of the Directors shall be eligible for election as a Director after serving the third of three consecutive full regular terms of three years each until a one year hiatus as such Director is achieved.

Section 4. Removal. Any Director may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, by a vote of fifty-one (51%) percent of the members voting in person or by proxy or absentee ballot at a meeting duly called for this purpose. In the event of death, resignation, or removal of a Director, their successor shall be elected by a vote of the membership of the Association at the next Annual or the Special Meeting called for that purpose, and shall serve for the unexpired term of the predecessor.

Section 5. Compensation. As a special inducement to serve, Directors who are handling the duties and responsibilities of their term of office shall be compensated in an amount equal to the Association Dues for one (1) Lot for the following fiscal year. No Director shall conduct business with the Association or receive any compensation for goods or services provided to the Association during their term in office unless approved by the Board of Directors for the betterment of the park. Directors may be reimbursed for actual expenses pursuant to the appropriate procedures for reimbursement as established by the Finance Committee.

Section 6. Action Taken Without a Meeting. The Directors shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the approval of all the directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Directors.

Section 7. Board Advisor. The Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may from time to time, appoint a member of the Association to serve as an advisor to the Board. The advisor will not be a voting member of the Board and shall serve at the request of the President of the Board of the Directors to maintain consistency in the actions of the Board.

ARTICLE VII

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Nomination. Nominations for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the Annual Meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a chair-person, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors and two (2) or more members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors at the first regular Board Meeting following the Annual Membership Meeting to serve until the first regular Board Meeting following the next Annual Meeting.

The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for the election to the Board of Directors as it shall, in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Such nomination shall be made from such members in good standing with the Association, and deemed qualified by the Nominating Committee standards to serve as a member of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee shall submit the slate of candidates to the Board of Directors at least sixty (60) days prior to the Annual Membership Meeting.

Section 2. Election. Election to the Board of Directors shall be by written ballot. At such election the members or absentee member may cast, in respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise under the provisions of the Declaration. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

ARTICLE VIII MEETING OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least quarterly without notice, provided that five days prior written notice of a regular meeting shall be given to each Director. The place and time of such meeting may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Special Meeting. Notice for a special meeting shall state the time, place and purpose of such meeting. Any Director may waive notice of a meeting, in writing, for either regular or special meetings, before or after such meeting, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to giving of notice. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held for a specific purpose when called by the President of the Association, or by any two Directors, after not less than three (3) days notice to each Director. Only items listed in the purpose of the meeting shall be conducted at a special meeting

Section 3. Quorum. A majority of the number of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board. If at any meeting of the Board of Directors there shall not be a quorum, the Directors shall adjourn the meeting until a quorum is present. At any such adjourned meeting in which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice. The action of a Director in the action of a meeting by signing and concurring in the minutes thereof shall constitute the presence of such Director for the purpose of determining a quorum.

Section 4. Conduct of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be conducted in accordance with "Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised." The President of the Board, if present or if not present, the Vice President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. In the absence of such officers, the Directors present at the meeting shall appoint one of them to act as presiding officer of the meeting.

Section 5. Board Meeting Open to Members. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, meeting of the Board of Directors shall be open to members. The Board shall give reasonable notice to members of the date, time and place of each Board Meeting. No notice need be given to members if: (1) the date, time and place of the meeting were announced at a previous Board Meeting. (2) the date, time and place of the meeting were posted in a location accessible to members and designated by the Board from time to time; or (3) if an emergency requires immediate consideration of a matter by the Board.

Meetings may be closed to members to discuss the following: (1) personnel matters (2) pending or potential litigation, arbitration or other potentially adversarial proceedings between members, between the Board or the Association and members, or other matters in which any member may have an adversarial interest, if the Board determines that closing the meeting is necessary to discuss strategy or otherwise protect the position of the Board or Association or the privacy of a member or occupant of a lot; or (3) criminal activity arising within the community, if the Board determines that closing the meeting is necessary to protect the privacy of the victim or that opening the meeting would jeopardize any investigation of the activity.

ARTICLE IX
POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. The Board of Directors shall have power to:

- (a) adopt and publish or its Delegate to adopt or publish, rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Area and facilities, and personal conduct of the members and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for the infraction thereof;
- (b) suspend the voting rights and right to use of the recreational facilities (but not the rights of ingress and egress) of a member during any period in which such member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association. The Administrator or Board of Directors may also suspend the guests of a member for infractions or violations of published rules and regulations. All members have the right to appeal the suspension within (30) thirty days. The Security Committee for the Association will hear all appeals in a timely manner and recommend the terms of the suspension to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will make the final decision on all appeals.
- (c) exercise for the Association all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to this Association and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of the By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Declaration;
- (d) declare the office of a member of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event such member shall be absent from (30%) thirty percent of regularly scheduled meetings of the Board of Directors in any given year. All members of the Board should be present at the Annual Meeting of the members and April, June, July, November and December board meetings unless there are health or family emergencies; and
- (e) employ a manager, an independent contractor, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties.

Section 2. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to:

- (a) cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the members at the Annual Meeting of the members, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by one-fourth (1/4) of the Class A members who are entitled to vote;
- (b) supervise all officers, agents and employees of this Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed;
- (c) as more fully provided in the Declaration, to:
  - (1) fix the amount of the annual assessment against each Lot at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period;
  - (2) send written notice of each assessment to every Owner subject thereto at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period; and
  - (3) foreclose the lien against any property for which assessments are not paid within thirty (30) days after due date or to bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same.
- (d) issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any person, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment has been paid. A reasonable charge may be made by the Board for the issuance of these certificates. If a certificate states an assessment has been paid, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such payment.
- (e) procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on property owned by the Association.
- (f) cause all officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate;
- (g) cause the maintenance services to be performed in accordance with the Declaration;
- (h) cause annual unaudited operating statements of the Association to be prepared and be available upon request to each member at the Annual Meeting. .

ARTICLE X
OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. Enumeration of Offices. The officers of the Association shall be a President and Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time by resolution create, who shall at all times be members of the Board of Directors. All members of the Board of Directors must be in good standing with the Association to remain on the Board.

Section 2. Election of Officers. The election of officers shall take place at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following each Annual Meeting of the members.

Section 3. Term. Each officer of this Association shall be elected annually by the Board and each shall hold office for one (1) year and until their successor is elected and qualifies unless they shall sooner resign, or shall be removed, or otherwise disqualified to serve.

Section 4. Special Appointments. The Board may elect such other officers as the affairs of the Association may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as the Board may, from time to time, determine.

Section 5. Resignation and Removal. Any officer may be removed from office with or without cause by the Board. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board President or Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office shall be filled by appointment by the Board. The officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term of the officer that was replaced.

Section 7. Multiple Offices. No person shall simultaneously hold more than one of any of the other offices except in the case of special offices created pursuant to Section 4 of this Article.

Section 8. Duties. The duties of the officers are as follows, any of which may be delegated with proper control and supervision:

- (a) President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and at all meetings of the members; shall see that orders and resolutions of the Board are carried out; shall sign all leases, mortgages, deeds and other written instruments and shall co-sign all checks and promissory notes. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all standing committees, except the nominating committee.

- (b) Vice President. The Vice-President shall act in the place and stead of the President. In the event of their absence, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President shall exercise and discharge such other duties as may be required of them by the Board.
- (c) Secretary. The secretary shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all meetings and proceedings of the Board and of the members; serve notice of meetings of the Board and of the members; keep appropriate current records showing the members of the Association together with their address, and shall perform such other duties as required by the Board.
- (d) Treasurer. The treasurer shall receive and deposit in appropriate bank accounts all monies of the Association and shall disburse such funds as directed by resolution of the Board of Directors; shall sign all checks and promissory notes of the Association; keep proper books of account; cause an annual audit of the Association books to be made by a public accountant at the completion of each fiscal year; and shall prepare an annual budget and a statement of income and expenditures to be represented to the membership at its regular Annual Meeting, and have copies, if requested. The Treasurer shall be a liaison member of the Finance Committee.

ARTICLE XI COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committees. The President shall appoint, with approval of Board of Directors, such committees and their chairpersons as deemed appropriate by the Board in carrying out its purpose. The chairpersons and committee members of the standing committees and the special committees shall be members of the Association and shall be appointed at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the Annual Meeting. They shall serve until the Board Meeting following the next Annual Meeting or until their successors have been duly appointed.

Section 2. Standing Committees. Standing committees are committees of a permanent nature which are appointed by the president and approved by the Board of Directors in a matter approved by the Board. The Board shall establish each committees terms and guidelines. These committees shall meet regularly and report to the Board of Directors.

Standing committees will be: Advisory Council, Nominating, Finance, Security, By-Laws, Long Range, Golf and Lot Standards and shall be advisory to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall approve the members of the committee and set terms and the respective committee guidelines.

Section 3.     Special Committees. Special committees are committees of a temporary nature which are appointed by the President and approved by the Board of Directors in a manner approved by the Board. The Board shall establish their terms and guidelines. These committees shall meet as necessary, when appointed and as instructed by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.     Duties and Responsibilities of the Committees. The duties and responsibilities of each of the committees is as follows:

- A.     Nominating Committee.     The Nominating Committee shall, at each meeting of the members nominate two (2) or more candidates from the membership for election to each directorship for the which an election will be held at the meeting. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the meeting. A member of the Board of Directors shall be the chairperson of the Nominating Committee.
- B.     Finance Committee.     The Finance Committee shall be charged with the responsibility of reviewing the monthly financial statements, reviewing the Associations investments and recommending a plan for proper investment, assuring that the Association's books are audited on an annual basis and the preparation of a proposed annual budget and plan for capital improvements.
- C.     Security Committee.     The Security Committee shall review security reports and recommendations as presented by the Security Director and Management for proper and consistent procedures. They shall recommend to the Board of Directors any fines levied or suspensions imposed on members or their guests. Should there be appeals of any fines or suspensions these appeals shall be heard by the Security Committee and recommendation sent to the Board of Directors for final action.
- D.     By- Law Committee.     The By-Law Committee shall review the Association's Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions regularly and recommend to the Board of Directors any amendments to these documents which the committee or other members deems to be advisable.
- E.     Long Range Committee.     The Long Range Committee shall be charged with the responsibility of reviewing the overall status of the park to determine what the plan for the future development and improvements in the park are for the betterment and enjoyment of the members. They shall review that status of all equipment and buildings and recommend a schedule of repair and replacement to the Board of Directors.

- F. Golf Committee. The Golf Committee shall be charged with the responsibility of overseeing the operations of the golf course and the golf caddy shack and present a proposed plan and budget to the Finance Committee for continual maintenance and upgrading of the golf course and caddy shack. The Committee shall solicit input from the Lot Owners and golfers. The golf course maintenance person and caddy shack supervisor shall be advisors to the Golf Committee.

- G. Lot Standards. The Lot Standards Committee shall be charged with the responsibility of reviewing recreational vehicles and making recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning substandard Lots and other items regarding Lot development.

ARTICLE XII
BOOKS AND RECORDS

The books, records and papers of the Association shall at all times, during reasonable business hours, be subject to inspection by any member. The Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association shall be available for inspection by any members at the principal office of the Association, where copies may be purchased at reasonable cost.

ARTICLE XIII
ASSESSMENTS

As more fully provided in the Declaration, each member is obligated to pay to the Association annual and special assessments which are secured by a continuing lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments which are not paid when due shall be delinquent, and shall be subject to reasonable late charges and fees as established and set by the Board of Directors from time to time. If the assessment is not paid within ninety (90) days after the due date, the assessment shall bear interest from said due date at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum, and the Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property, and late charges or fees, interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees of any such action shall be added to the amount of such assessment. No Owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non use of the Common Area or abandonment of their Lot.

ARTICLE XIV
CORPORATE SEAL

The Association shall have no Corporate Seal.

ARTICLE XV
INSURANCE

Section 1. Required Coverage. The Association shall obtain and maintain, at a minimum, a master policy or policies of insurance with the insurance requirements set forth in the Act and the additional requirements set forth herein, issued by a reputable insurance company or companies authorized to do business in the State of Minnesota, as follows:

- a. Property insurance in broad form covering all risks of physical loss for the full insurance replacement costs of the improvements on the common areas, less deductibles, exclusive of land, footing, excavation and other items normally excluded from coverage (but including all buildings, service equipment and machinery). The policy or policies shall cover property owned by the Association and shall name the Association as the named insured. Such policy or policies shall include such additional endorsements, coverages, deductibles and limits with respect to foregoing and other hazards as may be required from time to time.
- b. Comprehensive public liability insurance covering the ownership, existence, use operation or management of the property, with minimum limits of $1,000,000.00 per occurrence, against claim for death, bodily damage and such other risks as are customarily covered by such policies for developments similar in size, location and use as this property. Lot owners shall be included as additional insured, but only for claims and liabilities arising in connection with the ownership. The policy shall contain a (severability of interest) endorsement which shall preclude the insurer from denying the claim of an owner of a lot because of negligent acts of the Association or other owners and shall cover claims of one or more insured parties against other insured parties.
- c. Fidelity bond or insurance coverage against dishonest acts on the part of directors, officers, managers, trustees, employees, or persons responsible for handling funds belonging to or administered by the Association if deemed to be advisable by the board. The fidelity bond or insurance shall name the Association as the named insured and shall name the Association as named insured and be written in an amount equal to the estimated maximum of Association funds. Including reserves, in the custody of the Association or management agent at any given time while the bond is in force. An appropriate endorsement to the policy to cover any persons who serve without compensation shall be added if the policy would not otherwise cover volunteers, or a waiver of defense based upon the exclusion of persons serving without compensation shall be added.
- d. Workers Compensation Insurance, as required by law.

Policies carried pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) shall provide that.

- a. Each member and secured party of a lot is an insured person under the policy with respect to liability arising out of the members interest in the common area or the members membership in the Association,
- b. The insurer waives its rights to subornation under the policy against any member or members household and against the Association and Directors,
- c. No act or omission by any member or secured party, unless acting within the scope of authority on behalf of the Association, shall void the policy or be a condition to recovery under the policy,
- d. The Associations policy shall be the primary insurance if, at the time of a loss under the policy, there was other insurance in the name of the member covering the same property covered by the Association policy.

Section 2. Cancellation. Notice of Loss. All policies of property insurance and comprehensive liability insurance maintained by the Association shall provide that the polices shall not be canceled or substantially modified for any reason without at least 30 days prior written notice to the Association.

Section 3. Review of Policies. All insurance policies shall be reviewed at least annually by the Board of Directors in order to ascertain whether the coverage contained in the policies is sufficient to make ant repairs or replacement of the property which may have been damaged or destroyed.

ARTICLE XVI AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Method of Amendment. These By-Laws may be amended, at a regular or at a special meeting of the members called for such purpose, by a vote of 51% (fifty-one percent) of the members voting in person or by proxy at such meeting. Amendments to the Bylaws and Declarations take effect upon the date of the adoption by the membership.

Section 2. Conflicts. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these By-Laws, the Declaration shall control.

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED
DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS
AND RESTRICTIONS
FOR PATHFINDER VILLAGE

THIS SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS (hereinafter this “Declaration”) is made this day of _____, _____, by the Owners as the same are defined herein by and through PATHFINDER VILLAGE - ST. CROIX OWNERS ASSOCIATION INC., a Minnesota non-profit corporation.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, PATHFINDER VILLAGE - ST CROIX OWNERS ASSOCIATION INC., a Minnesota Non-Profit Corporation and First Bank of Grantsburg, a Wisconsin corporation, (the “Original Declarants”) executed on June 12, 1974 that certain Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions filed in the office of the County Recorder, Pine County, as Microfilm Document No. 237373, with respect to certain real property located in Pine County, Minnesota (the “Original Declaration”)

WHEREAS, as authorized by Articles XI and XII of the Original Declarants, their successors or assigns, made certain amendments and subjected certain additional real property to the Original Declaration, as set forth in those certain Supplementary Declarations numbered 1 through 14, inclusive, and filed in the office of the County Recorder, Pine County, respectively as Microfilm document No’s 238710, 239136, 240387, 240388, 241480, 242346, 242883, 244714, 244715, 248192, 253885, 255000, 259981 and 266725 (collectively referred to hereinafter as the “Supplementary Declarations”);

WHEREAS, the Owners previously amended the Original Declaration by that certain instrument captioned First Amendment to the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for PATHFINDER VILLAGE Inc., filed in the office of the County Recorder, Pine County, as Microfilm Document No. 289901 (hereinafter the “First Amendment”);

WHEREAS, the Owners desire to consolidate all of the provisions of the Original Declaration, Supplementary Declarations and First Amendment in a single document and further to make certain amendments to and modifications of such documents;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Owners, by and through PATHFINDER VILLAGE - ST. CROIX OWNERS ASSOCIATION INC., hereby amend and restate the Original Declaration, Supplementary Declarations and First Amendment in their entirety and make this Declaration in lieu thereof.

ARTICLE I
GENERAL PURPOSE OF CONDITIONS

The Properties are subjected by this Declaration to the restrictions, covenants, conditions, reservations, easements, liens, and charges contained herein to insure the best use and the most appropriate development of the Properties, to protect the Owners of individual Lots against such improper use of surrounding Lots as will depreciate their value; to preserve, so far as practicable, the natural beauty of the Properties; to guard against the erection of environmentally undesirable structures and structures built of improper or unsuitable materials; to prevent haphazard and inharmonious development of Lots; to provide adequate free spaces between Lots; and in general to provide for perpetual preservation of the Properties in the most natural and wild state possible, and thereby to enhance the value of the Properties.

ARTICLE II
DEFINITIONS

Section 1. "Association". Association shall mean and refer to PATHFINDER VILLAGE - ST. CROIX OWNERS ASSOCIATION Inc., a Minnesota non-profit corporation, its successors and assigns.

Section 2. "Owners". Owners shall mean and refer to the record owner, whether one or more persons or entities, of a fee simple title to any Lot which is a part of the Properties, including contract sellers and vendees, but excluding those having such interest merely as security for the performance of an obligation, and excluding those having a lien upon the property by provision of operation of law.

Section 3. "Common Area". Common Area shall mean the real property described in Exhibit "B" hereto together with any and all real property now or thereafter owned by the Association for the common use and enjoyment of the Owners.

Section 4. "Lot". Lot shall mean and refer to any plot of land shown in any recorded plat of the Properties, other than Common Area.

Section 5. "Properties". Properties or Property shall mean and refer to real property described in Exhibit "A" hereto together with any additional real estate which by amendment of this Declaration, duly approved and recorded, hereafter is added to the Properties.

Section 6. "Board of Directors". Board of Directors shall mean and refer to the Board of Directors of the Association as further described in the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of said Association.

Section 7. "Member". Member shall mean and refer to those persons entitled to membership in the Association as provided in the Articles, Declarations and By-Laws

ARTICLE III
MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING RIGHTS IN ASSOCIATION

Section 1. Membership. Every Owner of a Lot which is subject to assessment shall be a member of the Association. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any Lot which is subject to assessment.

Section 2. Class of Members. The Association shall have only one class of voting membership which is hereby designated as Class A. Class A members shall be entitled to one vote for each Lot owned. When more than one person holds an interest in any Lot, all such persons shall be members. The vote for such Lot shall be exercised as they among themselves determine, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast with respect to any Lot.

ARTICLE IV
PROPERTY RIGHTS

Section 1. Owners' Easements of Enjoyment. Every Owner shall have an easement for ingress and egress over the Common Area and an easement for enjoyment in and to the Common Area which shall be appurtenant to and shall pass with the title to every Lot, subject to the following provisions:

- (a) the right of the Association to charge reasonable admission and other fees for the use of any recreational facility situated upon or any activities conducted by the Association on the Common Area;
- (b) the right of the Association to suspend the voting rights and right to use of the recreational facilities and Common Areas by a Member for any period during which any assessment against their Lot remains unpaid, provided however, that any Owner or Guest so suspended shall be sent written notification of such suspension prior to the effective date of such suspension and shall, within 30 days of the effective date of such suspension, have an opportunity for a public hearing before the Board of Directors or such individual or committee appointed as the Board's delegate. The Board of Directors may have the right of the Association to permanently suspend the guest of the owner(s) for documented violation of published rules and regulations of the Association. The owner(s) may appeal the suspension to the Board of Directors within thirty (30) days of the formal suspension; provided that, such written notice by the Association shall be deemed to be effective and timely given if deposited in the regular United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such Owner at the last such address of which the Association had been notified by such Owner; and further provided that, any Owner's right of ingress and egress to and from their Lot may not be suspended;

- (c) the right of the Association to dedicate or transfer all or any part of the Common Area for such purposes and subject to such conditions as may be agreed to by the members, except as modified by Section 5 of Article IX hereof, no such dedication or transfer shall be effective unless authorized by at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the members at a meeting duly called and held therefor.

Section 2. Delegation of Use. Any Owner may delegate, in accordance with the By-Laws, their rights of enjoyment, to the Common Area and facilities to the members of their family, their tenants, guests, or contract purchasers who are authorized by the Owner to use the property.

ARTICLE V BUILDING AND USE RESTRICTIONS

Section 1. Residential Use. No Lot shall be used except as a recreational campstead for use by a single family.

Section 2. Easements. The Association shall have the right to construct, maintain and replace or authorize the construction, maintenance and replacement of utilities across and under the Common Area (except that no easement or right will be granted in such a way as to interfere with any improvement on the Common Area) and to make all necessary cuts or fills upon the Lots to locate the roads and trails as shown upon any plat of the Properties.

Section 3. Private Wells. No Private domestic water wells shall be permitted on any Lots without the approval of the Board of Directors. All wells approved by the Board of Directors shall be installed and inspected by a state licensed installer. All wells must comply with all Minnesota State Law.

Section 4. Sewage Systems.

- (a) No individual sewage disposal system shall be permitted on any lot.
- (b) Each Owner shall provide a holding tank which complies with state health requirements for campsteads and is approved by the local governing authorities.
- (c) The Association shall have the right to construct and maintain septic systems including holding tanks and drainage fields on the Common Area for common facilities.
- (d) All sewage systems must be installed and inspected by a state licensed installer. All sewage systems must also comply with all Minnesota State Law.

Section 5. Nuisance. No obnoxious or offensive activities shall be conducted on any Lot, nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance to other Owners or the Association.

Section 6. Signs. No commercial or marketing signs of any kind, including “For Sale” and “For Rent” signs shall be displayed to the public view on any Lot.

Section 7. Pets. No horses, domesticated exotic animals, Reptiles or insects may be kept on any lot (s) with the exception of dogs, cats and other common domestic household pets. No animal shall be kept on any lot(s) for the purpose of commercial breeding. Unattended animals shall not be kept on any lot(s).

Section 8. Garbage and Refuse Disposal. No Lot shall be used or maintained as a dumping ground for rubbish, refuse, garbage or other waste matter. Rubbish, refuse, garbage or other waste matter shall be kept only in sanitary containers. All equipment for the disposal or storage of such matter shall be kept in clean and sanitary condition. Disposal equipment shall be approved by the Board of Directors or its Delegate prior to installation or use.

Section 9. Storage. No horse trailers, boat trailers, boats, snowmobiles, trail bikes, automobiles, or other motorized or unmotorized vehicles which do not usually contain sleeping facilities may be stored upon any Lot except as permitted and regulated and otherwise in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Association.

Section 10. Excavation. No Owner shall effect or cause to be effected any excavating, digging, tunneling, or other subsurface activity on any Lot without the prior consent of the Board of Directors or its Delegate.

Section 11. Rules and Regulations. The Board of Directors or its Delegate shall from time to time, consistent with these Declarations adopt, and the Owners hereby agree to comply with such rules and regulations “(Rules & Regulations)” governing the use and enjoyment of the Common Areas and all Lots equally, as the Board of Directors in its sole discretion deems appropriate or necessary to the preservation, orderly administration and enjoyment equally thereof. In connection therewith, the Board of Directors may establish a reasonable system of fines and penalties for infractions of the Declaration, By-Laws or rules and regulations promulgated hereunder. Such system shall include reasonable provisions for notice to any Owner to be fined and an opportunity for such Owner to contest such fines at a hearing thereof. Any fine duly levied pursuant to such rules shall be deemed to be an assessment and the Association shall have the rights set forth in Sections 1 and 8 of Article VII hereof with respect to interest, late fees, collection fees, attorney’s fees, judgements, foreclosures, or reasonable fees deemed necessary by the Board of Directors or its Delegate

Section 12. Curfew. In order to maintain the safe and harmonious nature of the Properties, the Board may establish through the use of its rule and regulation powers reasonable curfew hours for the Common Areas on such basis and applicable to such age groups as the Board from time to time deems appropriate and necessary.

Section 13. High Use Surcharge. In addition to maintenance assessments, the Board of Directors may establish and levy reasonable use surcharges for the purpose of defraying the excess costs and assuring a more equal spreading of costs amongst Owners and users of the Properties. Such use charges may be levied on any reasonable basis, including but not limited to the nature and size of vehicles or trailers used or parked on a Lot, the nature and quantity of appliances used on a Lot, the number of individuals using a Lot, and/or the number of days of such usage. Such use charges shall be reviewed at least once annually to assure the charges levied reasonably reflect higher usage by the Owner or Owners surcharged and the cost of such higher usage.

ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING

Except as specifically authorized by rule or regulation, no building, deck, screen house, sun porch, patio, fence, wall, exterior lighting, or other structure shall be commenced, erected or maintained upon any Lot until the plans and specifications therefore showing the nature, kind shape, height, materials and location of the same shall have been submitted to and approved in writing as to harmony of external design and location in relation to surrounding structures and topography by the Board of Directors of the Association or its Delegate. In the event said Board, or its Delegate, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within thirty (30) days after said plans and specifications or proposal have been submitted to it, such approval will not be required and this Article will be deemed to have been fully complied with.

COVENANT FOR MAINTENANCE ASSESSMENTS

Section 1. Creation of the Lien and Personal Obligation of Assessments.

The Original Declarants covenanted and the Owners, as their successors and assigns hereby continue that covenant for each Lot owned within the Properties, and each Owner of any Lot by acceptance of a deed therefore, whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed, is deemed to covenant and agree to pay the Association: (1) annual assessments or charges, and (2) special assessments for capital improvements, such assessments to be established and collected hereinafter provided. The annual and special assessments, together with such late fees for untimely payment as the Board may from time to time reasonably establish, interest, costs, reasonable attorney's fees incurred in collecting the same, and fines or penalties duly levied for infractions of this Restated Declaration, the By-Laws or the rules and regulations, shall be a charge on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the property against which each such assessment is made. Each such assessment, together with late fees, interest, costs, reasonable attorney's fees and fines or penalties, shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the Owner of such property at the time when the assessments fell due. The personal obligation for delinquent assessments shall not pass to their successors in title unless expressly assumed by any such successors.

Section 2. Purpose of Assessments. The assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote the recreation, health, safety, and welfare of the residents in the Properties and for the improvement and maintenance of the Common Area and the Lots, including a reasonable reserve for depreciation of Common Area assets.

Section 3. Maximum Annual Assessment. In each calendar year the maximum annual assessment shall not be increased more than (5%) percent above the maximum assessment for the previous year without a vote of fifty one percent (51%) of the votes of the members who are voting in person or by proxy, at a meeting duly called for this purpose.

Section 4. Special Assessments for Capital Improvements. In addition to the annual assessments authorized above, the Board of Directors upon approval by the members of the Association, may levy, in any assessment year, a special assessment applicable to that year only or over an extended period of years, for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair or replacement of a capital improvement upon the Common Area, including fixtures and real property related thereto. Such special assessment shall have the assent of fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of the members who are voting in person or by proxy at a meeting duly called for this purpose.

Section 5. Notice and Quorum for Any Action Authorized Under Section 3 and 4. Written notice of any meeting called for the purpose of taking any action authorized under Section 3 or 4 of this Article VII, stating the time, place and purpose of each such meeting, shall be sent to all members at the last such address as provided in writing to the Association by each such member, by depositing the same in the regular United States mail, postage prepaid, not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days in advance of the meeting. At the first such meeting called, the presence of members or proxies entitled to cast twenty-five percent (25%) of the votes of the Association shall constitute a quorum. If the required quorum is not present, another meeting may be called subject to the same notice requirement, and the required quorum at the subsequent meeting shall be one-half (½) of the required quorum at the preceding meeting. No such subsequent meeting shall be held more than 60 days following the preceding meeting.

Section 6. Uniform Rate of Assessment. Both annual and special assessments must be fixed at a uniform rate for all Lots, except as stated in Article V, Section 13 of these declarations. and may be collected on a monthly, quarterly or annual basis, as determined from time to time; provided that there shall be no annual or special assessments on Lots owned by the Association.

Section 7. Dates For Annual Assessments. The Board of Directors shall fix the amount of the annual assessments against each Lot at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period. Written notice of the annual assessment shall be sent to every Owner subject thereto. The due dates shall be established by the Board of Directors.

Section 8. Effect of Nonpayment of Assessments and Remedies of the Association.

Any assessment not paid within forty five (45) days after the due date shall, in addition to reasonable late fees set by the Association, bear interest at an annual rate as determined by the Board of Directors upon all such unpaid assessments from said due date. The Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same, or foreclose the lien against the property in the manner provided for foreclosure of a mortgage. No owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non-use of the Common Area or abandonment of their Lot.

Section 9. Subordination of the Lien to Mortgages. The lien of the assessments provided for in this Declaration shall be subordinate to the lien of any first Mortgage. Sale or transfer on any Lot shall not affect the assessment lien. However, upon the sale or transfer of any Lot pursuant to any proceeding in lieu of foreclosure, or upon the expiration of any period of redemption following the sale of any Lot pursuant to foreclosure, the lien of any such assessments as to payment which became due prior thereto, shall be extinguished, provided that, such Lot shall not be thereby relieved from liability for any assessments thereafter becoming due or from the lien thereof.

ARTICLE VIII
MAINTENANCE AND INSURANCE

Section 1. Common Area Maintenance. The Association shall maintain the Common Area, including utilities on the Common Area, in good condition and repair and in a neat and orderly condition, and shall maintain hazard and liability insurance as required by the By-Laws. The Association shall also provide for the use by Owners of garbage and trash receptacles. In the event of partial or complete damage to or destruction of any amenity now or hereafter located on the Common Area the Association shall repair or rebuild such amenity, provided however, that, in the event insurance proceeds are inadequate to cover the cost of such repair or rebuilding, all such cost in excess of insurance proceeds shall be assessed against the Owners as a special assessment, in the manner and in the proportions provided in Section 4 and 6 of Article VII hereof. In no event shall the Association be held personally liable for any such cost of repairing or rebuilding such amenities. In the event excess insurance proceeds remain after paying all costs of repairing or rebuilding such amenities, such excess insurance proceeds shall be first applied by the Association to reduce all outstanding indebtedness, if any, secured by a mortgage on the Common Area, and then to the reduction of annual and special assessments.

Section 2. Additional Exterior Maintenance. If, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Association, the need for maintenance or repair of the Common Area is caused by the willful or negligent act of an Owner, their family, guests or invites, the cost of such maintenance or repair shall be added to and become a part of the assessment hereby mutually release each from the other, and their respective physical properties if such damage or destruction results from one or more of the perils covered by the standard Minnesota form of fire and extended coverage insurance.

ARTICLE IX
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Enforcement. The Association shall have the right to enforce, by any proceeding at law or in equity, or both, all restrictions, conditions, covenants, reservations, liens and charges now or hereafter imposed by the provisions of this Declaration. Failure by the covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

Section 2. Severability. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by judgment or court order shall in no wise affect any other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 3. Amendment. The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the land, for a term of thirty (30) years from the date this Declaration is recorded, after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years. This Declaration, except as hereinafter provided, may be amended by vote or written agreement of Lot Owners casting a majority of the ballots or signatures therefor at any duly called special or annual meeting of the members of the Association; provided, however, that no amendment shall be effective unless at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the Lot Owners vote for the amendment, in person or by proxy, or execute a written agreement of amendment at such meeting. No amendment shall be effective until recorded in the office of the County Recorder, Pine County, Minnesota. An Affidavit or certificate of the Secretary of the Association stating that the votes or agreements required by this paragraph have occurred shall be attached to the amendment and shall constitute prima facie evidence of the representations contained therein.

Section 4. Annexation. Additional property and Common Area may be annexed to the Properties with the consent of the Owners of fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes being voted in person or by proxy at any meeting duly called for the purpose of considering an amendment to this Declaration in connection with such annexation.

Section 5. Sale, Rent or Disposition of Undesignated Common Area. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Board of Directors shall have the right, without further action of the Owners to sell, lease, license the use of, or otherwise dispose of any parcels of the real estate subject to this Declaration now owned, or hereafter acquired by the Association, except those parcels listed in Exhibit "B". In the event the Association, through its Board of Directors, sells and conveys any such parcel, as allowed hereunder, each such parcel and the Owner or Owners thereof shall accrue to the rights and be subject to obligations contained in this Declaration as a Lot and Owner as the same are herein defined, including but not limited to all usage of a Lot and the maintenance assessments therefor and all rights as a member in and of the Association.
